ORDER

New Delhi, the 11th November, 1965

No. 12/43/65-E.Pty.—In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 133V of the Defence of India Rules, 1962, and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, the Central Government hereby—

- (a) orders that all bills of exchange made or drawn in connection with, or arising out of, the import of jute from Pakistan to India, which are held or may hereafter be held by the State Bank of India, London, and are payable or may hereafter be payable to an enemy or an enemy subject or an enemy firm, shall with immediate effect vest in the Custodian of Enemy Property for India; and
- (b) directs that neither the State Bank of India, London, nor any officer or other employee thereof shall transfer, or part with, or make any payment in respect of, any such bill of exchange to any enemy or any enemy subject or any enemy firm except with the previous approval of the Custodian of Enemy Property for India.
